Why Hampshire?

Bordering Dorset, Wiltshire, Berkshire, Surrey and West Sussex, Hampshire boasts 1,400 square miles of stunning coastline, beautiful countryside and exciting urban culture.

From the rolling green hills of the South Downs National Park in the east, to the pebbled shores of the Solent in the south, the county is diverse and unlike any other.

visit-hampshire.co.uk

Hampshire's excellent transport links make it extremely accessible from other parts of the country. Within easy commuting distance of London, the region benefits from excellent rail networks, motorways, busy commercial ports and two airports. It is also the only place in the country accessible to the Isle of Wight by ferry.

Whether you are searching for a rural retreat or the convenience of a city centre location, there are plenty of venue choices to suit your business needs. From quality hotels to barn conversions and state-of-the-art museum space, Hampshire Conference Bureau have everything you need to know about organising an event in the county. Learn more about the region's individual areas, along with venue searches, across the following pages.

WHERE ELSE?

The historic city of

Southampton is a treasure trove of hidden gems. It has been a hub for transport and commerce for thousands of vears and its medieval walls have borne witness to some of the most pivotal moments in English history. Today the city is host to a thriving port, which is not only the largest in the UK for automotive trade but also welcomes the world's largest cruise ships, docking and departing on a daily basis. Southampton has a diverse arts and cultural scene boasting two theatres, three art galleries as well as SeaCity museum,

Tudor House and the newly refurbished arts and heritage venue God's House Tower. With a vast range of restaurants and eateries, Southampton presents culinary options from across the globe and everything from popular food chains to award-winning independents. Westquay shopping centre stands proudly in the heart of the city with over 100 different big brand shops whilst further household names and independent retailers fill the Marlands Shopping Centre, the high street and beyond.

Southampton is the largest city in Hampshire and is situated just 78 miles from London. The city has great transport links both nationally and internationally making it an easy destination to visit by plane, train, automobile or even by water.

New Forest

With its flat, open heathland, dense woodland, wild ponies and chocolate-box villages the New Forest is often described as one of the most beautiful parts of Hampshire. It allows visitors to 'get away from it all' with a series of unique, smaller venues for conferences and events. This part of the county mixes rural tranquillity with roaring coastline, perfect for those looking for somewhere different to host their event. It also has a superb selection of accommodation from luxury hotels such as Chewton Glen and Rhinefield House to the smaller boutique venues including Montagu Arms.

Test Valley, Romsey, Stockbridge & Andover

The picturesque Test Valley boasts Hampshire's longest river, many winding chalk streams, rolling green hills and tranquil water meadows. It is great for those who enjoy outdoor activities such as cycling, fishing or walking. The miles of open countryside are a pleasure to discover either independently or in groups and there are a fine selection of venues to host your corporate conference or event.

Test Valley has a rich heritage which can be seen in its historic market towns and villages, perfect for anyone wanting to plan an event away from the hustle and bustle of city life. This area is great for smaller conferences and events and visitors can escape from it all at the fine selection of boutique accommodation on offer.

Explore the extensive Sir Harold Hillier Gardens or historic Mottisfont near Romsey, or come face to face with nature at the Hawk Conservancy Trust or newly-extended Army Flying Museum, both near Andover.

Romsey and southern Test Valley is accessible via the M27 motorway. Andover lies on the A303 and is close to the A34 which connects Southampton to the Midlands. There are also several busy train stations with regular services to other parts of the country.

Basingstoke & Farnborough

Located just 45 minutes from London, Basingstoke and neighbouring Farnborough are becoming popular places to host events. There is a wide choice of venues designed to meet the needs of any business event as well as excellent transport links.

Basingstoke has a lively leisure scene with over 150 places to eat and shop and top quality museums such as Milestones and Basing House. Nearby Highclere Castle has also become popular with visitors as it is the backdrop for TV drama Downton Abbey.

Farnborough is best known for its links to the aerospace industry and the world famous biennial Farnborough International Air Show attracting over 150,000 trade and public visitors. The brand new £30m Farnborough International Exhibition and Conference Centre opened in March 2018, providing 20,000m<sup>2</sup> of flexible event space.

Petersfield, Alton & East Hampshire

The rolling green hills of east Hampshire were once the inspiration for novelist Jane Austen. This part of the county is very rural, speckled with pretty chocolate-box villages and quaint market towns. At its centre sits the South Downs National Park, which stretches from Winchester through to Eastbourne in East Sussex.

One of the country's newest National Parks, the South Downs is a haven for cyclists, horse riders, walkers and runners. Visitors can follow in the footsteps of Jane Austen with a visit to her former home in Chawton. In the nearby village of Selborne, naturalist Gilbert White's house is open as a visitor attraction.

East Hampshire has two major mainline railway stations situated in the towns of Alton and Petersfield. The A3 road runs through east Hampshire, from Waterlooville through to Surrey providing a scenic route for those travelling by car.

Winchester & Central Hampshire

Winchester is the perfect English city nestled on the edge of the South Downs National Park. It is England's ancient capital and former seat of King Alfred the Great. Winchester boasts ancient venues with modern facilities, from small intimate event space to conference venues for 600 people.

With the city's award-winning hotels and restaurants, delegates will never be short of delicious dining options for evening relaxation. If you are looking to accommodate all your delegates in one place, the hotels within the area have the answer. For delegates wishing to stay somewhere slightly smaller, the city's bed and breakfast establishments will be only too happy to accommodate.

Conveniently served by 3 junctions of the M3 and accessible to those travelling from the north via the A34, Winchester couldn't be better placed.

Incentives, Activities & Teambuilding

Whether you are looking to reward your staff, add a team building activity to break up a meeting or entertain your quests, there is plenty to choose from.

We work with a number of great team building suppliers and have put together our top ideas below.

See Southampton Guided Walking Tours

With a huge amount of hidden history in Southampton, what better way to uncover this than through a variety of walking tours. With themes such as Ghastly, Grim and Gory, Vaults and Vino, Notable and Notorious Women and Provisioning the Pilgrims – The Mayflower in Southampton they are sure to entertain and enlighten. Why not finish with afternoon tea or a glass of wine in one of Southampton's historic buildings.

CSI Event

Become a Crime Scene Investigation team for the day and learn to collect and process evidence using professional techniques and equipment. Throughout the day teams will use their new found skills in fingerprinting, ballistics testing, forensic dentistry and blood spatter in order to solve a mysterious crime. The CSI Event is fun, thought provoking and a brilliant bonding experience.

Bake Off

After a short introduction and demonstration by the professional pastry chef, teams will be set a challenge to make a variety of bakery and pastry items. Competing head to head teams will race to make, bake, and ice, a variety of bakery items while the clock is ticking, followed by a judging session - penalties will be given for under cooked cake or split custards.

Bear Grylls Survival

Undertake a range of survival challenges, inspired by some of the greatest explorers of all time. Available in 5 different levels, ranging from level 1which is indoors and can be held in any conference room, to stage 5 - which would be hosted at one of our venues with outdoor space.

Canon Firing

Each group works as a team, aiming, loading and firing the cannon at the fortress target. Instructors are dressed in appropriate historical military costume. Cannon firing can last from 1 hour to 1 1/2 and is perfect as a pre-lunch or pre-dinner activity or break out session.

New Forest Country Sports

Experience the great outdoors in the New Forest National Park with a variety of exhilarating activities to suit everyone. Your day could include a Tree Top Adventure (flying down zip wires, Tarzan style swinging from tree to tree), Forest Segway, mountain biking, archery or laser clay shooting

Sailing On The Solent

Sailing is becoming increasingly popular not only as a sport but as a fun social activity. Sailing boats are an ideal platform for networking and getting to know colleagues, as well as being an excellent environment for spending quality time with quests. Racing helps to build a long lasting sense of camaraderie and team spirit among participants. Experiences can be incorporated with some of the regions renowned regattas such as Cowes Week.

LYC See Southampton

Guests are flown by helicopter to the north end of the Isle of Wight for a 24 hour stretch in a state of the art Military base. Staying overnight in army barracks, guests will share bunks and enjoy a canteen breakfast in this back to basics themed challenge. This exclusive challenge involves resources such as a 13 metre high rope course. SA80 Laser Rifle Training System, the largest mobile Climbing Wall in the UK and a number of explosives and pyrotechnics.

Gin Making And Tasting

An introduction in to the world of gin with a brief history, the various methods for producing gins and a review of the botanicals to set the scene for the practical work to follow. Teams will then produce a target gin profile tasting each distillate and infusion to decide which components work with their profile and how much of each to add until the desired product is produced.

Delegate itineraries to discover ...

Experience the idyllic southern county of Hampshire, where medieval myths and literary legends merge with modern city life, quaint countryside, and expansive coastline.

Historic Winchester and Literary Inspirations in the South Downs

Once the most important royal church in England, the history of Winchester Cathedral spans an impressive 15 centuries. Find the resting place of kings, queens and bishops as well as much-loved author Jane Austen. Visitors may also recognise the spectacular cathedral as the setting of the Vatican in the film adaptation of the Da Vinci Code.

The Great Hall, once thought to be the site of Camelot, is a 13th century hall. Admire the gothic archways and marble columns and be filled with wonder at the iconic Round Table, around which sat famous kings of British medieval history.

Follow in the footsteps of beloved author Jane Austen to the pretty village of Chawton and explore the Grade I listed cottage in which she lived and ### found inspiration, the Jane Austen House Museum.

Travel a little further to Chawton House to this quintessentially English manor house which was once owned by Austen's brother Edward Austen Knight. Set on 275 acres of Hampshire countryside, Chawton House Library features many treasures by women writers of the past.

Close by in Selborne you can also visit Gilbert White's House Museum. Its surroundinglandscapenestled in the South Downs National park, inspired Gilbert White's life-long investigation of the natural world, culminating in his world-famous book The Natural History and Antiquities of Selborne.

Remarkable North Hampshire Architecture

Visit the unique Bombay Sapphire Distillery where creative architecture, gin masterclasses and highly delicious drinks are all on the menu at this state-of-the-art distillery and home to the famous blue bottled gin.

On the county border sits Highclere Castle, with Egyptian antiquities exhibited within its cellars, this magnificent house was once home to the explorer who discovered the tomb of Tutankhamen. Today visitors may recognise it as Downton Abbey in the popular BBC drama.

New Forest Delights

Visit the world famous 200 acre Exbury Gardens in the heart of the National Park along the Beaulieu River. Once described as 'heaven with the gates open' Exbury Gardens were the inspiration of Lionel Nathan de Rothschild and his vision has made them what they are today.

Embark on a panoramic Hop On And Off Bus tour, with the opportunity to soak up the picturesque chocolate-box villages, cosy thatched pubs and wild ponies which adorn the heathland. Key photo opportunities can be found in the villages and towns of Brockenhurst, Lyndhurst, Lymington and Burley.

In the afternoon stop at the award winning Beaulieu National Motor Museum. Uncover a fascinating collection of over 250 automobiles and motorcycles telling the story of motoring from when it began to the present day. Enjoy time to explore the onsite exhibitions such as Top Gear, the ruins of Beaulieu Abbey, historic Palace House and the mono-rail.

Sea-Faring city of Portsmouth

The historic naval city of Portsmouth is home to one of the south coast's most popular outlet shopping centres, Gunwharf Quays.

Whilst there, soar up the 170 metre tall Emirates Spinnaker Tower and soak up the panoramic views of Portsmouth Harbour and beyond before enjoying a light lunch at the Café in the Clouds.

Next door sits the famous Historic Dockyard, where majestic battleships, impenetrable submarines, and a fleet of unforgettable naval stories lie. Climb on board HMS Warrior 1860, once the pride of Queen Victoria's fleet, then follow in Lord Nelson's footsteps on board HMS Victory, his flagship which played an important role in the Battle of Trafalgar. Finally discover 19,000 artefacts at the state-of-the-art Mary Rose Museum, home to Henry VIII's beloved warship which sank in Portsmouth Harbour.

Bureau FAQ's

What services do Hampshire Conference Bureau offer?

As well as our free accommodation and venue booking service, we offer bespoke full event & project management services to suit your requirements.

What could this include?

We work closely with our clients to guarantee the seamless delivery of their event. We provide a dedicated project manager to oversee every aspect of the event. We can manage delegate registrations, liaise with suppliers, facilitate venue visits, and produce a variety of support material for your event, including marketing, joining instructions, badges, agenda packs and more.

What does your free accommodation booking service offer?

If not included in your conference package we can offer your delegates a hassle free, personable service to book accommodation during their visit to the area. We would provide options to suit all budgets and details to include proximity to your conference venue for ease of choice.

Do you assist venue finding agents?

Our website includes an extensive list of top quality venues and offers expert local knowledge. The Bureau aims to entice more conference buyers to the region, showcasing some of the best conference and event venues in the south of England. Give us a call and we would be delighted to help with your requirements.

Is Hampshire a good destination for association conferences?

As a county, Hampshire has a strong affiliation with the maritime, health and aviation sectors in particular. Hampshire is a great destination for association conferences offering a variety of venues to suit conferences of any size, as well as unique spaces for gala dinners or drinks receptions. With great transport links and plenty of accommodation for all budgets, Hampshire offers the whole package!

What our clients say...

Don't just take our word for it. Here is what a few of our recent clients think about us.

"Shirley and the team at have professionally delivered over 500 business events for Business South during a 12 year period, since 2007. They consistently provide an expertly efficient service with meticulous eye to to recommend the team at all aspects of venue finding and event management."

Leigh Sara Timberlake

CHAMPION DIRECTOR. BUSINESS SOUTH

" The event was a great success. The venue & activities and all round experience was fantastic. I am very grateful for the excellent set of recommendations you provided me to consider – my event would not have gone ahead without your have passed on your details to if we do something similar again I will be in contact."

Chris Fendley MASTERCARD

"We recently worked with Hampshire Conference Bureau to deliver the International Council of Museum's Wet Organic Archaeological Materials 14th working group conference, in Portsmouth, UK. It attracted over 120 international delegates, and was a huge success, partly due to the hard work, dedication and enthusiasm of Hampshire Conference Bureau. From the initial planning, to taking bookings and dealing with enquiries, to delivering the actual event, all team members were willing to go the extra mile to help and did so with complete professionalism. If you want a smooth running event, with consistent support, I cannot recommend enough working with Hampshire Conference Bureau."
